Rev. Dr. Herbert Schmidt, Seminary's Librarian Since 1946, Dies Today At 55

Rev. Dr. Herbert H. Schmidt, 55, Oak Ridge, librarian at the Gettysburg Theological Seminary since 1946, died this morning at 8:40 o'clock at the Harrisburg General Hospital from a heart condition.

He had been a patient at the Warner Hospital from last Tuesday until Saturday when he was transferred to the hospital in Harrisburg.

An ordained minister, he served his first pastorate in the Mt. Joy Lutheran Church from 1934 to 1938 and for the next eight years was pastor of the Lutheran Church at Woodboro, Md., until taking up his position at the seminary. He was ordained by the Maryland Synod of the Lutheran Church in 1934.

JOHNSTOWN NATIVE

He was a son of the late Edward and Marie (Shrader) Schmidt and was born in Johnstown, Pa.

He was a graduate of Central High School in Johnstown. He received his A.B. degree from Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove in 1931. He studied at the seminary there for the next year and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1934 from the seminary here.

He did postgraduate work at Auburn Seminary, Auburn, N. Y., in 1937 and in 1949 received his degree in library science from the Columbia University Library School in New York City.

HONORARY D.D.

In 1956 Susquehanna University conferred the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. In 1951 the Gettysburg seminary conferred on him the degree of Master of Sacred Theology.

The Rev. Dr. Schmidt was a member of the American Theological Library Association, the Adams County Torch Club, Pi Gamma Mu, the national social science society, and the Inter-Faculty Club here of which he was president in 1953.

He was a former president for two terms of the Maryland Synod and had served as secretary of that synod's Western Conference. He was a former chairman of the Maryland Synod Committee on Rural Church Policy and since 1957 had been disbursing agent for the Maryland Synod Committee on Students.

JURY DENIES DAMAGES FOR MINTER STORE

An Adams County jury Monday afternoon found some negligence on the part of George Rebert, deliveryman for Minter's Store, in connection with an auto accident January 3, 1963, and as a result found Minter's could collect no damages.

In the trespass action brought by Stover A. Small, Clifford J. Naugle and L. Glenn Minter, partners trading as Minter's Store, Baltimore St., against J. Graydon Forrester, Fayetteville R. 2, and Charles R. Rotz, Chambersburg, the jury retired at 2:55 Friday afternoon to begin its deliberations.

Two hours later the jury returned to the courtroom and Foreman Charles L. Weaver, Hanover R. 4, asked the court for additional information concerning rules pertaining to negligence in a civil suit. "We are agreed there is a little negligence on one part and gross negligence on the other," he told the court. Judge W. C. Sheely said the law provides that "if you find the plaintiff guilty of negligence in any degree, he cannot collect."

BOTH NEGLIGENCE

Five minutes later, at 5 o'clock, the jury returned with a verdict "in favor of the defendant," noting that "both parties had been negligent."

The suit arose from an accident on York St. at Fourth Street, driving the Minter's truck, had delivered groceries at a home on York St., then attempted to make a left turn into Fourth St. A truck loaded with nine tons of shingles, operated by Forester as an employee of Rotz, struck the delivery truck. The shingles-laden vehicle had also been headed west on York St. Forester told the jury he had seen the delivery truck parked, and had swung to the left to pass it when it started (Continued On Page 10)

LIONS DANCE, HONOR SENIOR AT MEETING

Gettysburg Lions watched a square dancing demonstration and then some of the Lions took part after their weekly dinner meeting at the Varsity Diner Monday evening when they honored their senior-of-the-month from Gettysburg High School.

Members of the Gettysburg Cannonaders, a square dancing group that holds two dances a month at Cashtown and one at the high school here, demonstrated square dance figures and then enlisted Lions to take part.

James A. McIlhenny, a member of the Senior class at Gettysburg High School, was presented with a scholastic honor certificate by Charles E. Tressler, member of the Lions Club and principal of the Senior High School.

McIlhenny, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. McIlhenny, Harrisburg Rd., is a letter of commendation winner in the Merit Scholarship exam and has applied for admission to Penn State University in the fall.

Lions were asked to make nominations for delegates to the international convention at Toronto in July. Dorsey Shultz (Continued On Page 10)

Rock 'n' Roll Singer Says He Knew Of Plot To Kidnap Sinatra 2 Months Earlier

By GENE HANDSAKER
LOS ANGELES (AP) — A rock 'n' roll singer has electrified a federal courtroom by testifying he knew about the Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnap scheme about two months before it was carried out.

Earlier Monday Dean Torrence, 23, denied advance knowledge of the plot — and thereby, the judge said, committed perjury.

In his later version Torrence said defendant Barry Keenan told him of the plan in October, and three days after the alleged abduction, gave him about $25,000. But, he said, he gave it back.

BEST FRIEND

In his first appearance Torrence, known for his hit record "Surf City," said he had considered Keenan his best friend for six years.

He said he had lent him money "so he could eat," adding

HOMEMAKER AWARDS FOR 3 HS GIRLS

Names of the winners of the Betty Crocker "Homemaker of Tomorrow" awards in three Adams County high schools were announced today.

The Gettysburg High School winner will be revealed at the annual FFA-FHA banquet to be held at the school March 12.

The Biglerville winner is Marie E. Reed. The girl chosen for the honor at Littleton High School is Deanna Lee DeGroot and at Delone High School the honor will go to Jane C. Klunk.

Each scored highest in her school in a written homemaking examination given Senior girls throughout the country December 3 and is now eligible for one of 102 scholarships totaling $110,000.

IN STATE COMPETITION

Test papers of all school winners in the state will be judged comparatively in coming weeks and a state Homemaker of Tomorrow will be named. She will receive a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the annual program; her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.

The second-ranking girl in the state will receive a $500 educational grant.

Late in April, the first-place winners from each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia, together with school advisors, will gather in colonial Williamsburg, Va., for an expense-paid educational tour of the east. The week-long tour, to include also Washington, D. C., and New York City, will culminate with the naming of the 1964 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Chosen on the basis of original test score, plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, she will have her scholarship increased to $5,000. Grants to second, third and fourth-place (Continued On Page 10)

Travel Council To Hold Dinner Mar. 3

Mrs. Doris Myers, Colonial York Tourist Bureau, will be the guest speaker March 3 at a dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Travel Council in the Cannon Cafeteria, Steinwehr Ave. All local members, key personnel and wives are invited to attend the dinner at 6:30 o'clock, followed by the program at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Nhu Is Called Outlaw

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, former powerful First Lady of South Viet Nam, has been declared an outlaw, a Justice Ministry spokesman said today.

The order has been issued for her arrest, he said. He refused to discuss details.

Mrs. Nhu has been living in exile in France with her four children since a Nov. 1 coup overthrew her brother-in-law, Ngo Dinh Diem.

In Paris, she called the action "the height of cynicism."

Spokesmen for the Foreign and Interior ministries said the order is a legal technicality which could not be executed unless Mrs. Nhu returned here, they said.

CLUB IS TOLD OF LINCOLN'S VISIT IN '63

Edward Everett "delayed the dedicatory exercises for the Gettysburg National Cemetery three times," John D. Lippy Jr. told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA.

Everett was notified that the dedication of the cemetery was to take place October 23. He replied that he could not speak until November 19 due to other commitments, and that date was selected for the program. The famed orator took a guided tour of the battlefield on the morning (Continued On Page 2)

CLUB OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Officers of the Adams County Women's Democratic Club were installed Monday evening at a meeting of the organization in the REA building.

Mrs. Frank Phillips, Lancaster, regional director of District Seven, Democratic Women, installed Miss Jean Miller, R. 1, president; Mrs. Edna Sneringer, McSherrytown, vice president; Mrs. Herbert Miller, Biglerville R. 1, secretary; Mrs. Donald Noel, McSherrytown, treasurer, and Mrs. Martha King, New Oxford, financial secretary. Miss Miller succeeds Mrs. Marie Harbaugh as president.

Other guests included Mrs. Grace M. Sloan, state treasurer, and Mrs. Margaret Gastrock, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Democratic Clubs.

Refreshments were served.

YAKE RESIGNS AS SOLICITOR FOR COUNTY BD.

Attorney J. Francis Yake Jr., who has been solicitor for the Adams County Board of School Directors for the last 22 years, submitted his resignation to the board at its February meeting Monday evening and Attorney Eugene R. Hartman of Gettysburg was elected in his place.

Mr. Yake, who resides near Cross Keys and has law offices on Baltimore St., had handled all of the legal work at the county level for the formation of all of the county's school jointures and mergers for more than two decades. He is a former district attorney.

In his letter of resignation, he explained that he had planned to decline re-election in July but with the upcoming school reorganization problems which may involve legal actions, he felt his successor should be chosen now.

TEACHER ELECTED

The board accepted his resignation with regret and directed that a letter expressing the board's appreciation for his services be sent to Mr. Yake.

School reorganization matters occupied much of the 2½-hour session with President Dean Asquith presiding and with all members present. The discussions indicated that the county board's decision on a new county school reorganization plan to be submitted to Harrisburg will not come before March or April and can be delayed as late as the May meeting.

The board elected a special education teacher for next fall, Miss Anna Jean Dockey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selon Dockey, New Oxford. She will serve in the elementary field at a salary of $4,800 but has not yet been assigned to any school. She is a Senior at the Millersville State College and a New Oxford High School graduate.

FILL POSITION

Mrs. Shirley Rindow Kotheimer, Highland Ave., wife of a professor at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, was elected as a substitute special education teacher at Fairfield to fill the position made vacant by the recent death of Mrs. Carol R. Kiser. She will be paid $27 per day. She is a University of New Hampshire graduate and has had teaching experience.

The board reviewed plans for visits Thursday, March 5, to (Continued On Page 10)

Mrs. Rhodes To Be Buried At Centralia

Funeral services for Mrs. Ethel Culp Rhodes, 67, formerly of Gettysburg, who died very suddenly Saturday evening at her home in Centralia, Wash., will be held there Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. Interment also will be made at Centralia.

Mrs. Rhodes, who was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Culp of Gettysburg, was a former organist at St. James and the Methodist Churches here and was a charter member of the Acorn Club here. She also gave private piano lessons here for a number of years. Her husband, Archie Rhodes, Centralia, and nephews and a niece are the only survivors.

PLAN ALUMNI EVENT MAY 29

Plans for the annual banquet and dance of the Gettysburg High School Alumni Association on May 29 were advanced at a meeting of the Alumni Council Monday evening at the Keefeauver Elementary School building. The president, Mrs. Rebecca Z. Schwenk, presided.

The price of the banquet was set at $2 with seniors to be offered advance tickets at $1.50. All tickets sold at the door will cost $2. Tickets will be available to the seniors May 15 at the senior high office. Jay Schmitt, awards chairman, will make the annual awards at the banquet.

The banquet and dance will be held in the new senior high school building. Council members will meet next on April 14 at 6:30 p.m. at Keefeauver School to help prepare letters for mailing. Reunion classes will be asked to pay for extra postage involved in special enclosures and the reunion classes of years ending in 4 and 9 will be asked to provide flowers for their own banquet tables.

The nominating committee will report at the April 14 meeting when the annual election of officers will be held.

Miss Helen Spangler was authorized to secure a card filing system for the association membership files. Fifteen attended Monday's meeting.

ROBERT S. RECK IS FOUND DEAD

Robert Samuel Reck, 68, Harney, a former Littlestown foundry worker, was found dead at his home late Monday afternoon by neighbors. Carroll County medical examiner said death apparently was due to a heart condition and had occurred earlier in the day. Mr. Reck lived alone.

He was a son of the late John W. and Mary (Shriner) Reck and is survived by a brother, Charles E., Manchester, Md., and a sister, Mrs. Robert Reinecker, Wrightsville, Pa.

Mr. Reck was a veteran of World War I and was a member of the VFW Post No. 6918 at Harney. He was also a member of the Moose lodge in Gettysburg.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the C. O. Fuss and Son Funeral Home in Taneytown with interment in the EUB Cemetery at Harney. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening.

FRANKLIN TWP. SCHOOL PLANS MUSIC EVENT

Several hundred youngsters will take part Thursday evening in the Franklin Twp. Elementary School's winter musical to be presented in the new auditorium of the school at Cashtown at 7:30 o'clock. Dorothy Ely Thomas will direct the program.

There will be selections by the school band, strings and chorus with the program to include popular favorites, cowboy songs, a "Winter Wonderland" and will conclude with a "Hootenanny."

In the first section of the program, titled "It's a Grand Night for Singing," there will be a march by the band and the Grade Five chorus will sing several numbers concluding with "Seventy-six Trombones."

A group of songs of the west will be given by song flute players and the Grade Four chorus after which the "Winter Wonderland" section of the program will be given by song flutists and the Grades Three and Four choruses and the string group.

There will be an offering before the final "Hootenanny" section that will open with the singing of the Alma Mater and continue with a group of traditional and folk songs. The band and the choruses for Grades Five and Six will sing.

Band members include: Charla Bender, Dennis Mickle, William Heffner, Jeffrey Kimple, Debra Sikes, Marian Hartman, Cindy McFeaters, Jan Beam, Joan Bucher, Barry Warrenfeltz, Sally Burcham, Steven Redding, Daniel Brent, Donald Carr, Wayne Carey, Robert Baker, Keith Bowling, Harry Kane, Jeffrey Kane, Timothy Kane, James Pritt, Blaine Sanders and Carl Wetzel.

Lloyd T. Snyder, 73, Is Fatally Hurt By Auto On Biglerville Road Monday

Lloyd T. Snyder, 73, Gettysburg R. 6, a former assistant state highways superintendent, was fatally injured Monday night at 6:40 when struck by a car near Coleman's Grocery, 1½ miles north of here on the Biglerville Rd.

The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said Mr. Snyder died at 6:50 while enroute in the local firemen's ambulance to the Warner Hospital. The cause of death was a compound fracture of the skull. Both his legs were also broken.

State police said the accident occurred as Edward Mickey, 42, Aspers R. 1, was driving north while Mr. Snyder was walking south on the east side of the road. As the car approached, he stepped out into the highway in the path of the vehicle, according to the police report.

H. EARL PITZER QUILTS POST OF GOP CHAIRMAN

H. Earl Pitzer, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee, this morning announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election at the June 11 biennial convention of the Republican committee. Pitzer who became party chairman in 1958, succeeding the late William I. Shields, is presently director of enforcement of the Bureau of Traffic Safety of the Commonwealth. He said that, under the principles set down by Governor Scranton, it is not necessary that he resign as county chairman but that it is more in line with the wishes of the governor as to appointive members of his administration relative to their continuing as county chairmen.

He added: "I feel, however, that I have served my party well for six years and that another leader should be given an opportunity to take over the reins. This will also enable me to devote more time to my private business." He said that he will support his successor to the fullest.

CITES RECORD

He said that he felt the party "had had a very effective record during his six years as chairman. A great amount of the credit belongs to the 130 committeemen, who had helped to build up the party's efforts and finances over the past years." He stated that when he became chairman in 1958 the "treasury was bankrupt" and (Continued On Page 10)

Weaver Stresses P. O. Parking Rules

Mayor William G. Weaver today emphasized the "No Parking" regulations at the post office on both sides of E. High St. from Baltimore St. to the first alley. The no parking zone was established at the request of the U.S. Post Office Department, and will be enforced by the safety committee of the borough council, Weaver said.

The 10-minute parking zone for post office patrons has been moved to Baltimore St. Mayor Weaver asks the cooperation of the public, and said the regulation prohibits parking in the restricted area evenings and Sundays as well.

Jetliner With 56 Aboard Crashes Into Lake Early Today; Find No Survivors

By ROBERT ROWAND
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An Eastern Air Lines four-engine jetliner carrying 56 persons on a flight from Mexico City to New Orleans disappeared minutes after takeoff from a New Orleans stop today and crashed in Lake Pontchartrain. There were no signs of survivors.

The Coast Guard said it recovered parts of a large aircraft, including seats, communication equipment and soundproofing.

Also recovered were clothing, luggage and what was described as parts of bodies.

MAY HAVE EXPLODED

The Coast Guard said one of its helicopter pilots over the wreckage area reported there were indications that the plane either exploded in the air or on impact. The debris was scattered over a wide area.

The spokesman said the site is about six miles south of the north shore of the lake, or some (Continued On Page 11)

The flag ceremony will be in charge of the Apple Valley District; invocation for all faiths, Michaux District; mistress of ceremonies, Mt. Top District; song leaders, Hill-and-Dale, Gettysburg troop members will be in charge of ushering. Cadette "buzz groups" will discuss challenge preps, "places to go and things to do in the local communities" and service projects for the troops.

Girl Scouts who have attended All States encampments will describe their experiences in past encampments to encourage Cadettes to prepare for the event.

Representatives for the Michaux District are Mrs. Milton Silver and Mrs. Edward Hannah; Mt. Top District, Mrs. Alan M. Gross and Mrs. Lowell Williams; Hill-and-Dale District, Mrs. John Ebert.

The next meeting of the planning committee will be held March 23 at 7:30 o'clock in St. Francis Xavier School.

THIRD ARREST IN CAR RING

Winfield Scott Overley, Reading, was placed in the York County jail Monday in default of $5,000 bail on charges of receiving stolen goods, offering for sale a motor vehicle with changed manufacturer numbers and conspiracy. The arrest was made in Reading by state police who said the charges were based upon attempted sale of a 1963 Cadillac in Hanover on February 6. The officers said Overley is believed to be connected with James E. Tawney, 44, 346 W. Middle St., and Thomas E. Stepp, 40, Reading, who were placed in the Adams County jail a week ago on similar charges arising from the attempted sale of a truck-tractor.

Overley was charged Monday night before Justice of the Peace Duane Garrett of Hanover on charges preferred by Cpl. Robert Brady of the local state police barracks. Justice Garrett said at 1:30 this afternoon that arrangements were being made to provide bail for Overley.

Suffers Injuries In Two-Car Crash

Richard L. Patterson, 23, Gettysburg R. 1, suffered chest injuries in an auto accident Monday evening at 5 o'clock at the intersection of the Lincoln Highway and Bonneauville Rd., a half mile west of New Oxford. He was removed from the scene to the Warner Hospital in the New Oxford ambulance.

State police said Patterson was attempting to turn from the Lincoln Highway into the Bonneauville Rd. when his car was in a collision with an auto operated by David P. Richmond, 21, Franklinville, N. J. Damage was estimated at $300 to the Richmond car and $100 to Patterson's vehicle.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Taneytown High School and is presently engaged in farming.

GROUP FROM LIBRARY ASKS APPROPRIATION

The Adams County commissioners, still working on the county's budget, heard explanations this morning concerning the amount sought by the Adams County Free Library and suggestions that the salary of the county veterans' director should be raised.

A committee comprised of Mrs. Oren H. Wilson, librarian for the county library, and Attorneys H. Thomas Pyle and Daniel E. Teeter met with the board to explain an agreement made two years ago by the prior board of commissioners that the county would provide sufficient funds to guarantee that the county library will receive a maximum of aid from the state and federal government in its current expansion program.

Under the original agreement providing for increases each year for three years, the county is to provide $12,500 this year to the library during the third year of its three-year program.

$45,000 AT STAKE
Dependent upon the county's participation are approximately $45,000 in funds from the state and federal government.

It was explained that the local, state and federal funds permitted more books to be purchased and more bookmobile service to be given. Thus the library could advance and all sums in the general drive for funds from the public could go to construction of the addition to the library now about completed.

Jesse Cline, J. Edward Kerrigan, Dale Clark, Frank Merrikan and Melvin Baker, a committee from the Allied Veterans' Council, met with the commissioners today and recommended that the county veterans affairs director be paid $4,000 a year—$500 more than the present salary, and that part-time clerical help, not to exceed $2,400 a year, be provided for the director's office.

Bills totaling $16,108.97 were approved at this morning's meeting.

Three Treated For Injuries Monday

Three persons were treated at the Warner Hospital Monday for injuries received in accidents.

Mrs. John E. Myers, 50, R. 3, received treatment for a fracture of the left wrist suffered when she slipped and fell on ice.

Mrs. Paul Staley, 36, R. 2, was also treated for a fractured left wrist sustained when she made a misstep from a chair while hanging wash.

Earl Herring, 57, R. 3, was treated for a fracture of the left thumb and lacerations of the left index finger inflicted while using a circular saw.

JACK HOFFMAN DIES SUDDENLY AT HANOVER

John Jackson "Jack" Hoffman, 78, a native of Adams County, died suddenly Monday afternoon at his home, 553½ McAllister St., Hanover.

A deputy York County coroner, Dr. Mark Redding Jr., said death was caused by a coronary occlusion. Mr. Hoffman had been in his usual health when he walked off the porch of his home at 3:10 o'clock Monday afternoon. He collapsed and was removed by ambulance to the Hanover Hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival.

For many years he was a construction worker for the United Telephone Company and during World War II he had been employed by Bethlehem Steel at Baltimore. He was a son of the late Edward W. and Mary Etta (Herring) Hoffman.

He was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Hanover; of the Moose of Hanover where he had served as a doorman for several years; of the Home Association of Hanover, which he had also served as a doorman for some time, and of the Hanover Eagles lodge.

His wife, the former Margaret E. Stauffer, survives, as do a son, Clark W. Hoffman, Miami Springs, Florida; three grandchildren, and these brothers and sisters; Lloyd E. Hoffman, Hanover; Mrs. J. Milton Bender, Gettysburg, and E. Gilbert Hoffman, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Funeral services, made through the Bender Funeral Home here, will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bucher Funeral Home, Hanover, with Rev. Howard J. McCarney officiating. Interment in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Hanover. Friends may call at the Bucher Funeral Home in Hanover Thursday night from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Clay Fined $2,500 At Weighing In MIAMI BEACH (AP)—A wild-eyed Cassius Clay drew a $2,500 fine for his bizarre shouting demonstration at the prenoon weigh-in for tonight's heavyweight title fight against champion Sonny Liston.

Clay, the poem-spouting Louisville Lip, weighed in at 210½ pounds, lighter than expected, and the champion at 218.

Commission doctors, who examined both fighters, said Clay's pulse was racing at 120 beats a minute while Liston's registered a normal 80.

HAD WARNING

Although warned by Chairman Morris Klein of the Miami Beach Boxing Commission against any wild demonstrations the 22-year-old challenger showed up for the weigh-in ceremonies with a cordon of associates, screaming at the top of his lungs and at times brandishing his fists at Liston.

"I am the greatest, I am the best in the world," Clay yelled, stomping about the temporary platform.

Liston looked at him in surly silence. Once he winked at someone on the side and smiled slightly—his only show of emotion.

ADVICE FROM CHAMP

Liston held up two fingers, which could have been interpreted as a victory sign or a prediction of how long the fight would last.

Once the two fighters were no more than three feet apart and Clay was jumping and holding his fists high, yelling at the champion, "I am going to eat you alive."

Liston cupped his hands over his mouth and said in a low tone, "Don't let everyone know what a fool you are."

CLUB IS TOLD

of November 19 and was late returning—delaying the parade to the cemetery. And at the cemetery immediately prior to the opening of the program, Everett again held up the proceedings.

Everett was not the only one with difficulties at Gettysburg. Lincoln was suffering the onset of a slight case of smallpox and when he left here on November 19 he rode most of the way to Washington with a damp cloth across his brow. Lippy said at a reception held at David Will's home, Lincoln seemed somewhat lethargic, perking up only when someone as tall as he came through the line.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Accompanying Lincoln to Gettysburg was Andrew Carnegie as a railroad aide. Edward Everett's daughter and her husband, a Captain Wise, were also in Lincoln's official party, Lippy reported. Commenting on the stop at Hanover Junction, Lippy said the large three-story building there was used as a telegraphic school. The governors of the states scheduled to be here were to leave Harrisburg at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of November 18 and meet Lincoln's train at the Junction.

However, because the governors could not be rushed, the train did not leave Harrisburg until 3 o'clock, Lippy declared. Then other delays occurred, including a break between the tender and engine, which forced a wait until a new engine could be secured, and as a result the governors did not arrive in Gettysburg until 11 o'clock on the night of November 18, after the festivities here that night were over.

Lippy told of other incidents about Lincoln's visit here.

He was introduced by C. William Harbaugh, vice president of the club. Lippy said he had "devoted more than 10 years to gathering and verifying information concerning Lincoln's visit." President Rev. Robert A. MacAskil presided.

ADDRESSES CLUB

George P. Heffran, assistant advertising manager of The Gettysburg Times, was the speaker Monday evening at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Lamp Post Tea Room. He spoke on "Attitude, Knowledge and Perspective." President Clyde Markle presided at the meeting. Two new members, James McDannell and Kenneth Fair, were introduced.

FACE CODE CHARGES

Justice of the Peace G. Edward Kane, Fairfield, has sent ten-day notices to Cecil B. Goulden, Gettysburg R. 2, charged with driving without an operator's license and Nellie Goulden, Gettysburg R. 2, charged with permitting a motor vehicle under her control to be operated by a person with no right to do so. The charges were filed by Fairfield Policeman Wilbert Fleming.

Other Churches To Get Members: Almost every church in town will receive additions to its membership as the result of the revival services now in progress at St. James Lutheran Church. Of the 144 who have made decisions up to this time preferences have been indicated on the cards signed for the following denominations: Reformed, Methodist, Catholic, Presbyterian, Church of the Brethren, United Brethren and Lutheran. At the opening of the evangelistic campaign the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Joseph B. Baker, stated that it was not to be the idea to bring about a larger St. James congregation but that the winning of converts was to be the sole purpose in view, no matter what denomination those reaching a decision should choose.

Hudson Sixes: Now comes a Six built on new principles, first worked out in Europe. A small-bore, long-stroke Six — a light-weight Six — a Six which consumes less fuel, by far, than any Four of equal power. See the new-type streamline body to which modern cars are coming. See the new ways for carrying gasoline and tires. See the "One-Man" top, the disappearing tonneau seats. Drive this Six. It will give you a motoring sensation not possible in any Four. You'll find this the most attractive car you know. And the price complete, with seats for up to seven passengers, is $1,750 FOB Detroit. S. G. BIGHAM, Biglerville, Pa.

Singmaster — Sullivan: Paul Singmaster and Miss Ethel Sullivan, both of Grand Mere, Canada, were married Wednesday at Montreal. Mr. Singmaster is a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Singmaster, of Seminary Ridge. He graduated from Gettysburg College in 1907 and is now employed by a large paper company at Grand Mere.

Fire Destroys Frat Building: While three-fourths of the residents of Gettysburg were sleeping soundly the large Alpha Tau Omega fraternity house on North Washington street burned to the ground with all its contents Sunday morning between four and five o'clock, entailing a loss estimated at between $7,000 and $8,000 with insurance. There is no explanation whatever of the cause of the fire which was the most spectacular Gettysburg has had for many years. It was not discovered until flames had burst through a large plate glass window on the first floor. William Little, hostler at the Reading engine house, a quarter of a mile distant, sounded the whistle of a locomotive and several minutes later Fritz Hurd, a college sophomore, running from a dormitory, saw the fire and gave the alarm at the school. The firemen found every floor ablaze when they reached the scene and floor by floor, the fraternity house gave way. With the fire there burned all of the hand-some furnishings of the building. Recently purchased floor coverings, fine furniture, a piano and some of the personal effects of the college boys were all consumed.

Will Go South: Eddie Plank's many friends here will be glad to know that he will join Connie Mack at Baltimore Wednesday and go on to Jacksonville, Florida, where the Spring training camp of the Athletics will be established. Eddie will shine for at least one more season.

Today's Talk

ON COMFORT

Too many people grow fat and begin to crumble, in mind and spirit, because of comfort. They boast too much of early struggles that ended all too soon!

All life should be a struggle, a striving, and an aspiration. And one's last day should be one's best and happiest.

There is a constant stir in the soul when there is struggle going on. When too much comfort sets in, dying begins. I like that inscription on the gravestone of the great English historian Green: "He died learning."

We associate too much with our equals. We ought to seek out our superiors! A famous tennis champion once told me that he always made it a point to play with a better player than himself.

The thing that spurs one on is to get satisfaction out of growth. But that can be no satisfaction when growth stops, or when comfort puts its tight wrapping about one. The thing that keeps ambition alive, and incentive warm, is constant fighting and contact with superior forces that defeat all slumbering and ease of life.

"Teddy" Roosevelt, our 26th President, left the story of his life exemplified in one great address which he termed "The Strenuous Life." He never sought comfort, but a life of constant service.

The way to a long and happy life is to keep on living, to keep on working, and to keep on thinking. There is nothing very satisfactory in the mere sitting in a clubroom, looking out of the window, and just watching the world go by, thinking that you are living in comfort!

The only kind of comfort worth striving for is that comfort of soul that comes along from active service, helping to make this a better world, and helping to make people and nations, freer, happier and nobler.

PRACTICE

An eager youth who loved the violin
Once heard the greatest player of the day
And sought him out and asked the genius gray
How he the topmost rung of fame might win.
"Last night," said he, "my father took me in
To hear you and to watch you while you play.
I want to know the secret and the way."

The genius said: "Tomorrow we'll begin,
Come back at nine and sit within the hall
Just where you sat last night and you shall see Where all is dark, with none to cheer at all,
How fame and skill and ease have come to me."

And all day long he practiced there to let
A youngster learn what audiences forget.

CLUB MEETING HELD

The Adams County 4-H Dairy Club met on Friday evening at the home of Philip Lobaugh, Aspers. The following had a discussion on a window display for the month of March: Kay Whitford, James Fissel, Timothy Brown, Mark Spangler and Philip Lobaugh.

Members of Xavier Dramatic Society on Monday evening delighted on a small audience with "The Penalty of Pride," a society drama which required a cast of unusual ability. Prominent in the cast was the bank president who is also uncle of the clerk's wife. Martin McSherry starred conspicuously in this part, proving himself to be one of the most finished amateur players in Gettysburg. Miss Grace Ramer has appeared in many local productions in the past but Monday night she had her first really heavy part as the young wife and she handled it admirably. Alban McSherry, as the clerk, put life and meaning into every one of his lines. Benjamin Redding put great fervor into his role as the impetuous poet-lover, while Edwin Codori, one of the bank clerk's bawdy pals, was excellent. His sister, Marie Codori, "saved from the slums," was fully up to the standard set by other members of the cast; while Miss Lucy Redding and Charles E. Swisher, two young people very much in love with each other, delightfully relieved some of the tense situations in the play. Miss Ruth Hamilton and James King were both very acceptable in their parts.

Brotherhood Is Theme For Talk

The Rev. Joseph Haggler, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, Carlisle, was the guest speaker at the February meeting of the lay life and work of Redeemer's United Church of Christ held in the church social hall on Monday evening. He spoke on "The Interpretation of Christian Brotherhood," and related race problems and the migrant workers situation in Adams County. The Rev. Mr. Haggler is migrant workers' state chairman and is presently doing graduation work at the University of Pennsylvania preparatory to writing a book on the subject.

The program opened with scripture reading and prayer by the Rev. Glenn K. Flinchbaugh, pastor. There was hymn singing, accompanied by Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Gene A. Hankey. James Washington, a member of Shiloh Church, sang a solo. The date and program for the March meeting will be announced later.

C.E. MEETING HELD

Clyde L. Sterner was speaker and discussed the topic "Youth Wants to Know" at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ United Church of Christ on Sunday evening. Roy B. Koons was leader for the program which opened with the group hymns, "Love Divine" and "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," accompanied by Evelyn L. Koons. The Scripture was read by Ronald Messenger; prayer, Richard J. Berwager; offertory accordion solos, Miss Mary Jane Harmon; business in charge of Larry E. Koonz; C.E. pledge in unison; closing hymn, "Amazing Grace"; Lord's Prayer and C.E. benediction in unison. The group will meet next Sunday at 7 p.m.

SET SHOW DATE

The annual spring horse show of the Carroll-Adams Club, Inc., will be held Sunday, May 3, at the club grounds, near town, along the Mill Rd. There will be approximately 24 classes in the show. The general committee for the event includes Wilmer Barnes, Gordon Warner, Nevin Dull, Ivan Arentz and Herbert Sterner. Plans for the show will be advanced at a meeting of the general membership on Thursday, March 5, in the clubhouse, Littlestown R. 1.

Teacher Speaks To Youth Group

Samuel J. Snyder, a teacher in St. Paul's Lutheran Church Sunday School, was the guest speaker at the meeting of St. Paul's Senior High Luther League on Sunday evening. Mr. Snyder spoke on the subject "Cheating." The members divided into four groups for further discussion and a question and answer period on the subject. The opening devotions were conducted by Edward Ruggles. It was announced that the Luther League Choir will sing at the 8 a.m. worship service on Sunday at 8 a.m. The group will be the guest of the Youth Fellowships of Redeemer's United Church of Christ for a gathering on Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at Redeemer's.

Hymn singing opened the meeting of the Senior High Luther League of St. Paul's Church on Sunday evening. Craig Zumburn read the Scripture and offered prayer. Films on a motor trip to the west coast were shown by Luther W. Ritter. It was agreed to dispense with the recreation period during Lent. The meeting closed with a hymn. The adult counselors present were the Rev. Graham T. Rinehart, pastor, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ritter and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pittenturf.

The young people will meet at the church at 6:15 p.m. on Sunday from where they will go to Redeemer's Church to attend the meeting of the Youth Fellowships. The regular meeting will be held on March 8 at 6:30 p.m.

TWO BAPTISMS

Two children were baptized by the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, following the Sunday morning worship service. They were Michael Edward Koonz, son of Charles Edward Jr. and Loretta Ann (Rager) Koonz, near town. The baptismal sponsors were the child's father and paternal aunt, Mrs. Esther Hess, Boyer St. The child was born August 31, 1963, in the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg. Todd Howard Hess, son of Mrs. Esther (Koonz) Hess, born November 4, 1963, in the Warner Hospital. The baptismal sponsors were child's mother and maternal uncle, Charles E. Koonz Jr.

LUTHER LEAGUES MEET

The Luther League of St. John's Lutheran Church met on Sunday evening with Chris Renner as discussion leader for the topic "Toil and Trouble." The Scripture was read by Edward Strevig and the pastor the Rev. William C. Karns, offered prayer. Sally Sheetz was appointed to be leader for the meeting next Sunday at 6 p.m. A film on Lutheran World Action will be shown at the March 8 meeting.

The Lenten Story

BY WOODY ESTIMATE

DARKNESS AT NOON

Before setting forth on the tragic road to Calvary, Jesus warned His followers of the dark and forbidding future.

He foretold the destruction of the temple and the fall of Jerusalem, only 40 years thence. He warned them that they would be hated and persecuted and eventually martyred for their beliefs. But for those who persevered, He promised life everlasting.

Finally, in some of the grandest and grimmest sentences in all literature, He foretold the end of the world: "The sun shall be darkened and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory." (Mark XIV:24-26)

62 COUNTIES TO AID SLATE In The News

HARRISBURG (AP) — All but five of the Pennsylvania Democratic party's 67 county organizations have indicated support for the slate of primary candidates endorsed by the State Policy Committee, it was announced Monday.

Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse said he has not yet heard from four counties, which he declined to identify.

He added, however, that the fifth county, Clarion, was undecided. He noted that Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt, an independent candidate seeking the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, was a native of Clarion County.

The policy committee has recommended nomination of the following candidates in the April 28 primary:

State Supreme Court Justice Michael A. Musmanno for U.S. Senate; State treasurer Grace M. Sloan for auditor general; Auditor General Thomas Z. Minihart for state treasurer, and county Judges J. Sydney Hoffman and Robert Lee Jacobs for Superior Court.

Urge Amendment For Bible Reading

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate unanimously adopted a resolution Monday urging Congress to amend the U.S. Constitution to allow Bible reading and prayer in the nation's public schools.

Sen. George Wade, R-Cumberland, was joined by 26 colleagues on both sides of the aisle in sponsoring the resolution which was passed by voice vote.

The resolution noted: "The vast majority of our citizens feel very strongly that it should be a fundamental right for children to express their belief in Almighty God by the reading of the Bible and by prayer, and that such practices should be permitted in our public schools."

The resolution was sent to the House for concurrence.

SAYS REDS IN S. VIETNAM SCENT VICTORY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's top Marine said today the Communists in South Viet Nam have stepped up the size and intensity of their attacks because they think the war is developing in their favor.

But Gen. Wallace M. Greene, the new Marine commandant, told The Associated Press he is optimistic about the eventual outcome of the anti-Communist war being waged with heavy U.S. help.

"I am optimistic as long as any outfit wants to fight," Greene said in an exclusive interview.

Greene discussed the war in South Viet Nam in the first question-and-answer session.

He has granted since becoming commandant of the 190,000-man Marine Corps last Jan. 1. He looked over the situation on the spot just before the last coup.

The commandant said he was unable to answer questions growing out of a spate of reports that the U.S. government is considering moves to carry the anti-Communist war behind North Vietnamese lines.

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—I felt Sonny Liston's muscle for $5. "How ya, champ," I said nervously, trying to start a conversation.

The hulking, phlegmatic heavyweight champion gave me a cold, animal-like stare that sent icicles dancing up my spine. "Get going," a man on the stage said brusquely, hustling me out a side door.

"Next."
$5 PER PICTURE
I was No. 7 in a queue of 32, who lined up in the bustling Surfside Civic Center training quarters to have their picture taken—at $5 a throw—with the sullen ring killer.

I was between Boy Scout Troop No. 18, a group of bug-eyed youngsters in green uniforms, and a giggling housewife in a pink sack dress, who kept gushing. "Isn't this just too exciting for words?"

Having a picture taken with Liston has been one of the privileges of the spectators attending his workouts for the Tuesday night title defense against loud-mouth Cassius Clay.

The tense line formed at the wooden steps, leading to the stage. Liston, who has just finished 45 minutes of almost unbroken shadow-boxing, bag-punching and rope skipping, wrapped himself in a white robe and took his stance against the wall.

A man in a three-button suit and striped tie, the executive type, strode over and took Liston's hand.

The champion gave him an expressionless stare. A pot-bellied truck driver struck up a boxing pose. Liston obligingly raised his hands in a similar pose, but didn't blink an eyelash.

A luscious dish in white tuxedo pants and dyed silver hair was next.

WITHERING STARE
Liston grabbed her, picked her off the ground in a swoop and held her in his arms like a bridegroom ready to carry his bride across the threshold.

The lady squealed delightedly. Liston didn't crack a smile. "Isn't he gorgeous?" the lady gushed.

When No. 7 game, I decided I'd try to crack the champion's frigid interior.

I got only that withering glare. I shivered, and passed on as flash bulbs popped.

The muscle? It felt like a ham hock back in Tennessee.

TWO RUMORED FOR EAGLES' COACHING JOB

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joe Kuharich or Jim Trimble reportedly will be the new head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles but owner Jerry Wolman insists there is nothing definite just yet.

The Philadelphia Inquirer reported Monday that Wolman has swung back to the two names high on his original list of candidates after failing to obtain Norm Van Brocklin of the Minnesota Vikings and learning definitely that Paul Brown, former coach of the Cleveland Browns, is not interested in the job.

The Inquirer said this was what it was told by a well-informed source in the National Football League.

PROMISED THIS WEEK
Wolman said from his home in Chevy Chase, Md., that there will be an announcement this week.

Asked if Kuharich, former Washington Redskins and Notre Dame coach, and Trimble, head coach of the Eagles from 1952 through 1955, were the two top prospects, Wolman said: "I'd rather not comment. Until we have something definite and complete with whom we're working with, practically no one's eliminated."

Wolman would not identify the one prospect whom he's working and he again declined comment when asked if it would be Kuharich or Trimble.

Boiler Blast Brings Fire

QUAKERTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Authorities were investigating today the cause of a fire, reportedly touched off by a boiler explosion, that destroyed the Quakertown Discount Center and caused damage estimated at $350,000.

An estimated 300 customers were in the store Sunday but made it to safety in an orderly manner after the manager T. B. DiBisi, got up on a counter and announced:

"Ladies and gentlemen, there is a fire in the building. All doors are open. Will you please leave."

Twenty-six clerks also escaped to safety, but one, Joseph Caffrey, 17, of Bethlehem R. 4, suffered cuts of his right arm when hit by flying glass.

Three firemen were overcome by smoke. They were treated at the scene and returned to fight the fire. Some 150 firemen battled the fire.

DiBisi was quoted by Fire Chief Russell Shelly as saying that an oil-fired boiler in a separate room—part of the heating system—exploded.

SAMMY SNEAD SNARES SENIOR GOLF TOURNEY

By BEN FUNK
PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP)—Eighteen years ago at the peak of a brilliant career, Slammin' Sam Snead won the British Open crown. Now he is going back to England, this time as the 51-year-old king of America's senior golfers.

Snead won the PGA Seniors title Sunday with a nine-under-par 279 over the new PGA National Golf Club course, after shrugging off late challenges by John Barnum and the old Arkansas Traveler, Dutch Harrison.

His victory brought him $2,500 and the Teacher Trophy, which includes a trip abroad to play the British Senior championship, yet to be decided. This match will be played July 5.

The following week, if he desires, Sam can again play in the British Open.

114TH VICTORY
Snead, although winning the 114th tournament of his career, a record unmatched by any other golfer, declared ruefully:

"I still can't putt. I hit a 10-footer today and that was the longest one I had the whole tournament."

His last-round 71 left him three strokes ahead of Barnum, who had fired a 69 to move up from fourth place to second and win $2,000. Harrison had a 74 for 285 and $1,500.

Leland (Duke) Gibson of Kansas City, Mo., the runner-up at the end of the third round, lapsed to a 77 for 287 and fourth money of $1,200. Jim Turnesa won fifth place and $800.

How to choose a great beer every time

IT all started over 80 years ago, when the Brooklyn Bridge was brand new. Gottfried Piel had recently come over from Germany. He was a beer lover and he missed the kind of beer they made in the old country.

The tiny Landser Brewery in the section of Brooklyn known as East New York was for sale. Gottfried decided to buy it and make some beer the way he thought it ought to be made.

He wrote to his brother Michael, a young brewmaster still living in Germany. "Don't buy any brewery," Michael wrote back, "until I check the water."

Michael Piel sailed the ocean and arrived in Brooklyn and was delighted with the sparkling artesian well water. The brothers bought the brewery and, naturally, renamed it Piel Brothers.

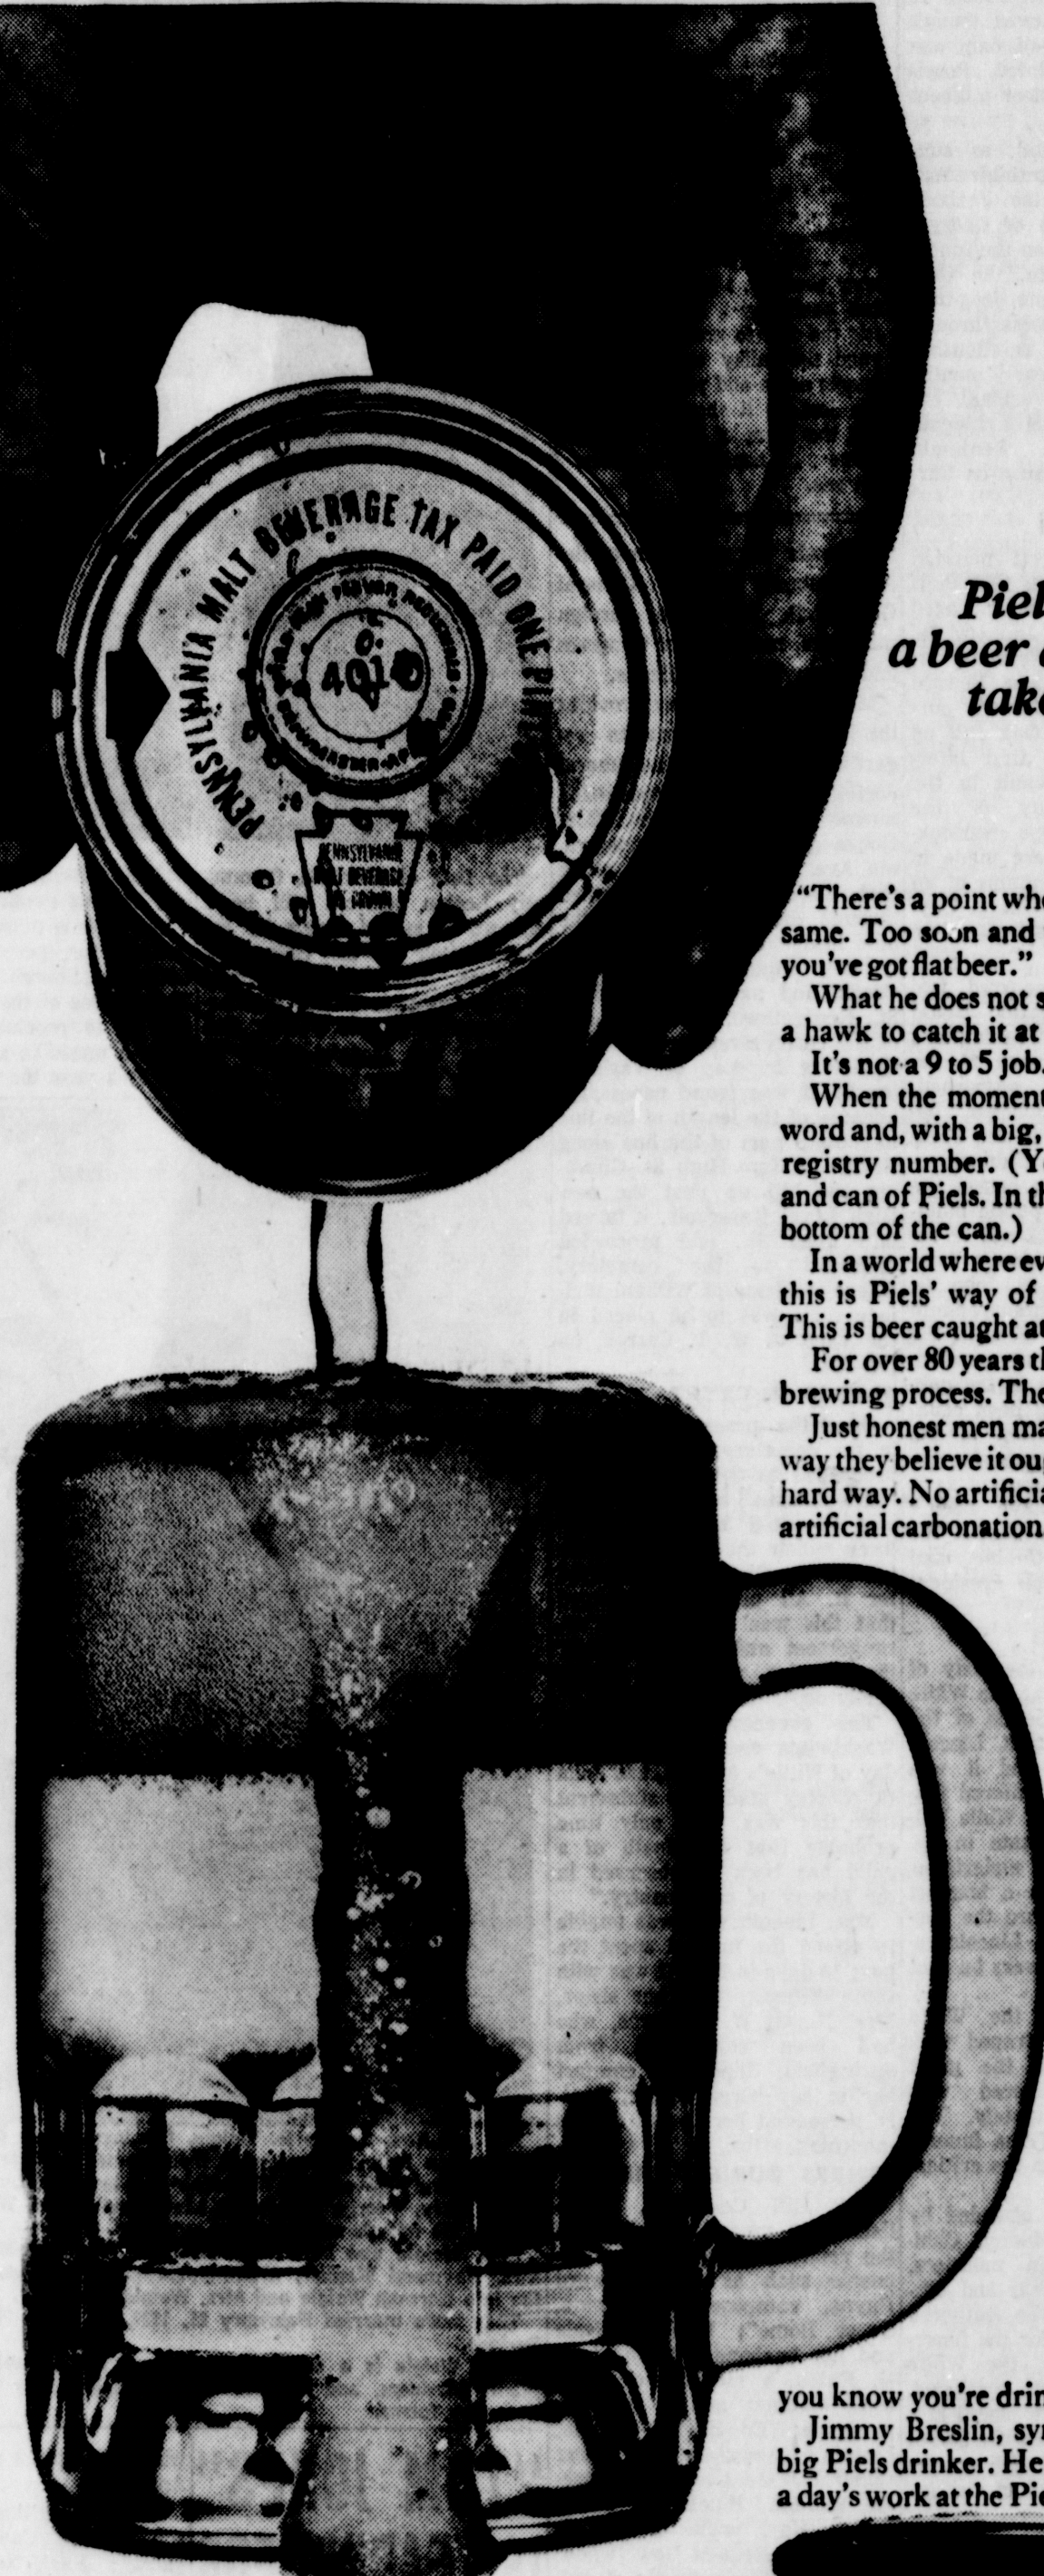

The first year they produced 850 barrels. Michael hardly ever went home. He was all over the brewery like three men, tasting and watching and sniffing. (He had a fantastic nose. Hunting, he could track a woodchuck with it. He could outsniff any hound dog around.) He was almost fanatical about his beer and there were days when Gottfried was sure he should have left Michael in Germany.

But Michael knew what he was doing and the neighboring farmers spread the news of the terrific lager beer which was being served up at the Piel Brothers Beer Garden. Even Michael's wife was caught in the spirit. She made fabulous marinated herring to go with the beer, and they came on bicycles from miles around.

Before long Piel beer was being delivered to such far away places as Manhattan and Hoboken, New Jersey.

Michael Piel and Gottfried Piel are long since gone. But their portraits still hang side by side in the brewery. The message is clear: Don't make it fast. Keep making it good.

The brothers have never had reason to turn over in their graves. The fact is that today's Piel's is a far better beer

Piel's invites you to read a beer advertisement that's taken 80 years to write.

"There's a point when it's perfect. At its peak. Beer is the same. Too soon and you've got green beer. Too late and you've got flat beer."

What he does not say is that he watches each batch like a hawk to catch it at its peak.

It's not a 9 to 5 job. (Just ask his wife.)

When the moment comes, Piel's brewmaster gives the word and, with a big, black pencil, assigns the brewmaster registry number. (You'll find a number on every bottle and can of Piel's. In the picture above the number is on the bottom of the can.)

In a world where even brewing beer has been automated, this is Piel's way of saying to you, this one is different. This is beer caught at its peak.

For over 80 years there have been no secrets in the Piel's brewing process. There have been no shortcuts either.

Just honest men making good beer the way they believe it ought to be made. The hard way. No artificial aging agents. No artificial carbonation. (The head on Piel's Bert and Harry, famous Piel's television spokesmen. Harry is the quiet, unassuming brewmaster and Bert is the somewhat boisterous sales manager.

beer is a natural head. And the Piel's you get in bottles and cans is the same Piel's you get on draft, except for pasteurization. We don't make two kinds of beer.)

When you take a swig of Piel's and the foam sticks to your upper lip and you swallow it in one big gulp you know you're drinking the McCoy.

Jimmy Breslin, syndicated newspaper columnist, is a big Piel's drinker. He puts it this way: "Somebody's doing a day's work at the Piel's brewery."

than it ever was in "the good old days." Because beer is a natural product, it tends to vary from batch to batch. That's why it is so difficult to make a great tasting beer every time. But it is not impossible. We do it. The hard way.

Piel's brewmaster compares the brewing of beer with the way nature ripens an apple on a tree.

PIEL'S PEAK FLAVOR BREWING PROCESS is outlined in this flow chart. The barley is ground and placed in the malt hopper (a). From there it goes to the mash tub (b). Corn is placed in the adjunct hopper (c), boiled in the adjunct cooker (d) and added to the mash. The malt wort is then filtered in the lauter tub (e). The clear wort goes to the brew kettle (f), where hops are added. The hops are removed by the hop strainer (g), other substances by a settling tank (h). The wort is now cooled (i) and sent to open (j) and closed (k) fermenting tanks. In the closed tank natural carbonation is collected and saved. After fermentation the beer goes to lagging tanks (l,m) passing through filters (n,o). When the beer matures to peak flavor, it is then naturally carbonated with its own carbonation previously collected in the fermenting tank.

Look for this seal and the brewmaster's registry number on every bottle and can of Piel's.

It means this is beer caught at its peak. (Too soon, you get green beer. Too late, you get flat beer.) Not a single ounce of Piel's leaves the brewery without the Brewmaster giving the word. That's what Piel's Peak Flavor Seal is all about.

GHS-East Pennsboro In Second Half Title Game At Carlisle High Tonight

Several hundred fans are expected to travel to Carlisle tonight where the Gettysburg High School Warriors will tangle with East Pennsboro for the second half championship of the Blue Mountain Basketball League.

A brisk sale of both adult and student tickets was reported at the local high school and continued until this afternoon at 3:30. Doors at the Carlisle High gymnasium will open this evening at 6:30 when several hundred tickets will be placed on sale. Game time is 7:30.

As first half champions, Gettysburg would annex both the second half and overall league title with a triumph tonight. However, if East Pennsboro is the winner another game would be played between the teams to settle the league title Thursday evening at 7:30, also on the Carlisle floor.

CONTESTING RECORDS

Tonight's game puts the best defensive and best offensive teams in the league against each other. Gettysburg was the defensive leader in permitting an average of 38.8 points per game while East Pennsboro averaged 66.7 for top scoring. Gettysburg's offense was at the rate of 50.7 while the Panthers' defense was 46. In regular season play the Warriors topped the Panthers here 44-34 and lost at Enola 49-39.

East Pennsboro will have a height advantage in the game with the starting group being composed of 6-7 Dave Snyder, 6-3 Terry Arnold, 5-11 Mike Zeigler, 5-10 Rennie Petre and 5-11 John Smith.

Snyder was the league's individual high scorer during the regular schedule with 316 points and Arnold finished fourth with 254. Bob Garretson, Biglerville, was runner-up to Snyder with 304.

Coach Merrill Eckhart will go with Bob Deitz 6-1, Rad Schultz 6-1, Dick Finkbner 6-0, Chris Richardson 6-1, and Eddie Tillberg 5-10 or Mike Flynn 6-0.

ANOTHER TITLE GAME

The Adams - Franklin League will ring down the curtain on its season this evening with four games.

Foremost on the schedule is the Greenacres - James Buchanan game at Merchburg which will decide the Franklin Division title and a shot at the District 3 PIAA playoffs. Both teams have 12-3 records.

New Oxford, Adams Division titlist and qualified for the District 3 Class C playoffs, finishes at Scotland.

Parents' Night will be observed at Littlestown where the Thunderbolts entertain Fairfield. Parents of the Littlestown players will be introduced and following the game will gather for refreshments.

Bermudian Springs, second place team in the Adams Division, concludes at St. Thomas.

KY. WILDCATS BLOW BIG ONE

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer When Kentucky was apparently on the eve of winning its way into the NCAA basketball tournament, Adolph Rupp was asked to compare the team with some of his other squads, notably national champions.

"I won't. I can't," said the Man in the Brown Suit with a wisdom born of more than three decades coaching college basketball. "They haven't won any titles yet."

He was prophetic. Monday, with a chance to secure the Southeastern Conference title and the accompanying NCAA berth, the Wildcats, the nation's second-ranked college team, blew one to upstart Alabama 65-59. Now it will go down to the last day of the SEC regular season.

But mighty UCLA, all alone at the top of the heap, rolled right along as the only major unbeaten team. The Bruins hurtled over Washington 78-64 at Seattle, clinched the Big Six title, became the 12th entrant in the 25-team NCAA field and extended its record to 23-0.

Of the other tournament teams in action Monday, all NCAA at-large choices, only Seattle stumbled 98-85 before Montana State. Defending champion Chicago Loyola, ranked No. 10, whipped St. Louis 79-66, Texas Western blasted New Mexico State 90-54 and Utah State romped over Montana 109-81.

In another major game, Colorado stayed alive in the Big Eight title chase with a 56-54 edge over Oklahoma State.

PENN STATE 5 HOSTS G-BURG ON WEDNESDAY

Gettysburg and Penn State will clash for the 26th time on a basketball floor Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at University Park.

The series began in 1901 and since that time Penn State triumphed 23 times as compared to but two victories for the Bullets. Gettysburg's wins were in 1926 at Penn State 38-32 and in 1950 here 66-65 in overtime.

The Nittany Lions, with Captain Bob Donato being the lone senior, started slowly this year and then came on with a rush until Army snapped their eight-game winning streak Saturday 46-37. They are now 12-7. Gettysburg is 14-8.

FINE AVERAGES

Penn State's offense has averaged 77 points per game while the Bullets' nationally ranked defense has yielded an average of 55.5 per contest.

The Lions, who have alternately used a zone and zone press defense, have displayed fine outside shooting all season.

Starters for the Lions will include Donato 5-10, who is averaging 13.8 points; Bob Weiss 6-3, the leading scorer with an average of 17.2; Carver Clinton, 6-4 Sophomore, 12.2 average and the leading rebounder with 160 grabs; Ray Saunders, 6-5 Soph, 10.5, and Ron Avillion, 6-5 Junior, 7.2. The six man is Tom Malinichak, 6-6 Senior.

Following Wednesday's game the Bullets finish their home season with Muhlenberg Saturday evening.

Canner-Faculty Game Thursday

The Biglerville High-Faculty basketball game, originally scheduled for this evening, has been postponed until Thursday evening in order to permit fans to attend the Gettysburg-East Pennsboro playoff tonight at Carlisle.

A preliminary game will be played at 6:45 between the Hasbans and Willbes.

All proceeds will go to the Biglerville Varsity Club fund.

CRACK TEAM AT BALTIMORE

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP)—Villanova's crack one and two mile relay teams and pole vaulter Rolando Cruz, among others, will compete in the Baltimore Sun Papers All-Eastern Invitational Indoor Games Saturday night.

Art Mahan, Villanova athletic director, announced Monday night that the Wildcats would bypass the first annual National Collegiate Athletic Association's Eastern indoor track and field championships at Louisville the same night.

"We've made a commitment and we're going through with it even though we'd rather go to the NCAA at Louisville," said Mahan. "We actually belong in Louisville. It would give us a chance to declare ourselves among our own competition."

Mahan explained that the Baltimore invitation was accepted about two months ago while the NCAA extended an invitation only last week. The Baltimore meet is under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union, but Mahan said the NCAA did not put any pressure on Villanova to compete at Louisville.

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The duffers get a chance to play today with the elite professionals of golf and get, what one pro calls "lessons they couldn't begin to pay for with cash."

It's the pro-am preliminary to the $50,000 Greater New Orleans Open which gets underway Thursday on the difficult, 7,000-yard Lakewood Country Club course.

The pros will be shooting for small cash awards as each one teams up with three local amateurs.

College Floor Is Chosen For District Playoffs; Several Teams Uncertain

Gettysburg College's 3,000-seat physical education building was tentatively selected for four District 3 PIAA basketball playoffs at a meeting of the district committee Monday evening at Annville.

The definite alignment of teams will depend largely on the outcome of a number of games remaining to be played this week.

Gettysburg High can clinch a Class A spot by beating East Pennsboro tonight at Carlisle. If the Warriors lose this evening they will again meet the Panthers at Carlisle Thursday evening for another crack at the Blue Mountain title and a playoff post. In the event Gettysburg enters the playoffs they meet Chambersburg on the college floor Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

CANNERS WITHDRAW

Regardless of the outcome of tonight's game at Carlisle, East Pennsboro will enter the Class B playoffs. It was revealed at Monday's meeting that Biglerville, twice beaten by East Pennsboro but deadlocked for Class B honors in the first half of the BML, has decided to waive competition. Injuries to two key Canner players helped bring the decision.

New Oxford of the Adams-Franklin League is a definite Class C entry, only three Class C teams being eligible at the present time. Tonight Upper Dauphin and Lykens meet and the winner of that game will meet New Oxford at Hershey March 5 in the Class C final in the first game of a twin bill. The second game will be the Class B final.

Despite the cloudy situations until league champions have been decided, the committee outlined the following tentative schedule of games which, of course, is subject to change:

CLASS A

March 2, Chambersburg vs. Gettysburg, at Gettysburg College; March 3, Middletown vs. Spring Grove or Northeastern, Gettysburg College; March 4, Central Penn League winner vs. Waynesboro, Gettysburg College; March 6, Dallastown vs. March 4 winner; March 2 vs. March 3 winners, double-header at Hershey; March 9 finals at Hershey.

CLASS B

February 28, Kutztown vs. Annville-Cleona at Lebanon High School; Warwick vs. Hamburg at Lancaster High School; February 29, East Pennsboro vs. Greenacres or James Buchanan, at Gettysburg College.

IS SEEKING NEW SKI JUMP MARK

ISHPEMING, Mich. (AP)—John Balfanz of Minneapolis, newly crowned national ski jumping champion, sets out this weekend to capture the U.S. distance record at the huge Pine Mountain Hill in nearby Iron Mountain, Mich.

This is one of his goals and he faces rugged competition in trying to top the American mark of 322 feet, hoisted last year at Steamboat Springs, Colo., by Gene Kotlarek of Duluth.

Kotlarek was dethroned as national champion Monday at Suicide Hill by Balfanz. The 23-year-old rider, who finished a disappointing 41st in the recent Winter Olympics at Innsbruck, Austria, had leaps of 235 and 231 feet and 220.8 form points in winning the national title.

Kotlarek was a close second with 230 and 235 feet leaps for 219.0 points.

UCLA ON TOP IN AP POLL FOR EIGHTH WEEK By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Rolling merrily to its first undefeated season in history, UCLA maintained its grip on first place for the eighth straight week today in The Associated Press major college basketball poll.

The Bruins grabbed a near-monopoly on first-place votes in the latest poll, being named at the top on 38 of the 42 ballots cast. Their total points—416—placed them well ahead of second-ranked Kentucky, which switched places with Michigan, No. 3 this week.

The voting was based on games through last Saturday. UCLA's vote-getting power was based on 22 games won. The Bruins were named second on the other four ballots, marking the first time they have been given all first and second-place votes.

TOPS MICHIGAN Kentucky leap-frogged over Michigan, which lost its third game in 21 last week. The Wildcats had 358 points, the Wolverines 332.

Kentucky received two first place votes and Michigan one. Oregon State, ranked sixth, was given the other one.

Duke held fourth place despite its loss last week to Wake Forest. Wichita moved up a spot to fifth, displacing Villanova, whose defeat by St. Joseph's sent the Wildcats reeling to eighth. Davidson also rose one notch to seventh.

DRAKE DROPPED DePaul maintained its ninth position, but Drake, beaten by Cincinnati, fell from the Top Ten altogether. Loyola of Chicago, No. 1 early in the season, returned to the select list as Drake's replacement in 10th.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

FINLEY READY TO SIGN LEASE FOR 4 YEARS

By JIM VALKENBURG Associated Press Sports Writer KANSAS CITY (AP)—Charles O. Finley says he's ready to sign a four-year stadium lease for his Athletics Wednesday, city officials pledge their support to the club and Councilman John Maguire wants to end his feud with Finley.

This would appear to lift the clouds from the troubled A's franchise, coming on the heels of an American League vote authorizing a meeting to consider ousting Finley from the league.

Pat Friday, A's general manager, reported a flood of telephone inquiries about season tickets Monday after Finley's acceptance Sunday night. Friday said an extensive sales drive is being organized.

SOME RESERVATIONS But reservations were expressed in some quarters.

Kenneth Krakauer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said the city is entitled to assurances from Finley that he won't try to break the lease in the future by suing the league.

Krakauer indicated he wouldn't turn loose the chamber's team of 400 ticket sellers until Finley gives assurance no law suit will be filed.

Asked about Krakauer's views, Finley told The Associated Press from his Chicago insurance office:

"I want to play ball, Joe Cronin (American League president) wants to play ball, the city wants to play ball, so let's get going."

"The acceptance telegram speaks for itself. If anyone wishes to attack or criticize the proposal extended to us by Kansas City and which we have accepted, I just don't understand their thinking and have no comment."

TOMMY DAVIS SIGNS FOR '64; GIVEN RAISE By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer "The bigger strike zone made some difference. I went after bad pitches more than I would have before."

The outfielder who said that knows what he's talking about. In 1962, he hit .346 with 27 homers and 153 runs batted in, and last year dipped in all three departments to .326, 16 homers and 88 rbi.

How much was he cut? SLUMPER GETS RAISE Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers, the slumper in question, received a $15,000 raise, getting a boost to the $42,500 neighborhood during the weekend when he signed his 1964 baseball contract.

Davis can join a select group this season if he wins the batting title for the third straight year. Only Ty Cobb, Honus Wagner, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial have been able to win three or more titles in a row.

Musial was the last to accomplish the feat, winning from 1951 to 1953.

CLEMENTE SIGNS Davis won his second straight title by only six points over Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, who signed with the Pirates during the weekend along with pitcher Joe Gibbon.

Five players signed with Cincinnati, third baseman Chico Ruiz, outfielders Marty Keough and Deron Johnson, catcher Jim Campbell and pitcher Ted Davidson. The New York Mets were next in quantity with three pitchers, Al Jackson, Craig Anderson and Galen Cisco.

Outfielder Don Lock signed with Washington, pitcher John Wyatt with Kansas City and pitcher Danny Rivas with the Los Angeles Angels.

WILT LEADING AS PLAYMAKER NEW YORK (AP)—A passing fancy that became permanent has given Wilt Chamberlain another distinction in the National Basketball Association's statistical ratings today.

Latest NBA figures show the San Francisco superstar among the league leaders in playmaking, a phase of the game Wilt never took too seriously until the current season.

The NBA's scoring king is the first pivot man in several years to crash the top five in assists. Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, the leader with 11 per game, and runners-up Guy Rodgers, San Francisco, Jerry West, Los Angeles, and K. C. Jones, Boston, all are backcourt men. Chamberlain is fifth, with 4.8 feeds per game.

Wilt's rise as a playmaker puts him among the first five in four of five individual departments. He is the No. 1 point-maker—36.5 per game—and rates second in rebounding and field goal percentage.

HALL EARNING VEZINA TROPHY MONTREAL (AP)—Glenn Hall is zeroing in on the Vezina Trophy, top goalie prize in the National Hockey League.

What's more, the Chicago netminder has become an offensive threat.

Hall, a mild-mannered veteran with steel nerves, opened a five-goal lead on his closest rivals in the Vezina running last Sunday by blanking Boston.

The shutout was Hall's sixth of the season, tying Boston's Ed Johnston for the league lead. But the Black Hawks' star probably will remember his assist on Bobby Hull's 36th goal longer. It was Hall's second set-up, establishing him as the goalie corps' top playmaker.

Hall is only 73 points behind teammate Stan Mikita in the individual point race. Mikita leads with 75 points, Hull was 72 and Montreal's Jean Beliveau 69.

LISTON IS OVERWHELMING Favorite To Win Tonight Over Gabby Cassius Clay By WILL GRIMSLEY Associated Press Sports Writer MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, the brooding destroyer, is an overwhelming 7-1 favorite—with virtually no betting—to burst the fabulous bubble of the brash bard from Louisville, Cassius Clay, tonight.

Most observers predict the lights will go out for the boastful, poem-spouting challenger within minutes, perhaps seconds, after the scheduled 10 p.m. EST opening gong in Miami Beach's pink-and-blue Convention Hall.

The fastest knockout on record in a heavyweight championship is one minute, 28 seconds, scored by Tommy Burns over Jim Roach March 17, 1908, and many are convinced this old mark will be broken.

SEEKS QUICK KO "I won't be trying for a record, but I am for a quick knockout," Liston said. "It will be over as soon as I catch him." Sudden demolition has become the theme of Liston's awesome fists.

He has knocked out his last three opponents—Albert Westphal of Germany and former titleholder Floyd Patterson, twice—in the first round, using a total of 6 minutes, 14 seconds.

The 23-year-old Clay, who says he "floats like a butterfly and stings like a bee," refused right up to the zero hour to assume the role of a man waiting for the modern guillotine.

FANS UNIMPRESSED "I'll outbox him in seven rounds and knock him out in the eighth," he insisted, adding his favorite poetic twist: "I'm predicting eight to prove I'm great."

His never-ending spiel of "I'm the king—I'm the greatest" has failed to make a dent however, on boxing fans, who must shell out on a scale of $20 to $250 for one of the 16,000 seats. Indications were that they would stay away in droves.

Needling $800,000 to break even on the venture, promoter Bill Macdonald, the self-made Miami millionaire, said sales had reached only $330,000 and that only a last minute rush for the ticket windows could save him from a financial bath.

BIG MONEY Meanwhile, a vast closed circuit television network, covering 269 theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada, is expected to gross between $4 and $5 million, assuring both fighters a handsome pay day.

If the over-all figure reaches $5 million, Liston, who also has a half-share in the parent promotional setup, stands to earn $1,360,000. Clay could draw $600,000, not bad for a young man who was an amateur four years ago on Uncle Sam's Olympic boxing team and who has literally grabbed himself to the threshold of the sports greatest prize.

The bout will be televised to Europe via satellite communication and will be broadcast nationally by the American Broadcasting Company.

A victory for the Louisville Lip—regarded as something in the miracle category—would provide one of the upsets of the century and one of the most astounding success stories in sports history.

Cassius acknowledges that he patterned his publicity campaign after that of the late wrestler, Gorgeous George, and started "throwing the jive"—as he put it—to attract attention.

LOOKS GREAT Now he has banged his cane against the ground and repeated "I am the greatest" so often that he seems to believe himself that he is unbeatable—the golden boy of the ring.

Clay is a superb-looking athlete, 6-foot-3 and at 215 the least of his career, but by comparison with the dynamite that Liston carries around in his gloves Clay has a powder-puff punch.

There are those who believe that Liston could drop his hands and let Cassius whale away at him for a full round, without ever being dropped to the canvas.

PREDICTS CLAY WIN Angelo Dundee, Clay's trainer, cites Cassius' attributes as "a good left hand, a good pair of legs and lightning reflexes."

"He'll make a monkey out of Liston," Dundee said.

Liston is a frightening bulk of a man, 6-1 with an 84-inch reach, 46-inch chest when expanded, biceps and neck that measure the same—17½ inches.

He has a left hook that lands with devastating force—it is this blow that smashed Patterson into senselessness both times—and a right hand that is frightening.

Bachelors Face Punishment As Maidens Prepare To Wield Authority On Leap Year Day

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—For residents of Ottawa, the next and wackiest holiday this year is Leap Year day when a man may be jailed for being unmarried.

It's Saturday, Feb. 29, and even the victims — the bachelors — are excited.

The single ladies will take over this northern Illinois city of nearly 20,000 persons for the once-in-a-quadrillion event.

WOMAN MAYOR

Miss Joyce Hayne, a secretary in the accounting department of Ottawa Silica Co., will be inaugurated mayor for a day. The role falls to her as president of the Ottawa Junior Women's Club.

Then, other girls will take the other city jobs — police chief, judge, fire chief, city prosecutor, and the City Council posts. After that, the men, male population must watch its step — and, incidentally, its pocket-book.

RAISING FUNDS

This year, the girls are raising funds for a new mobile rescue unit which will go either to the fire department or the river rescue unit that patrols the Illinois River.

Dorothy Bender, who was mayor four years ago, said the money will come from the men — or else.

Contributions are collected in open court from men who are summoned by the dainty arrest notices of the day — and the City Council chamber specially decorated for the occasion will be the courtroom.

"Oh my!" says Miss Hayne. "We couldn't hold court in a stuffy ordinary courtroom. I think we'll do it over in red and white — at least as much as we can with lots of gay plastic ornaments and ribbons."

Nancy Hilton is police magistrate for the day. She said all's fair, as far as the girls are concerned. But, she said, already, there is bribery afoot.

"Some men have sent flowers to some of our prospective city officials," she said. "We'll deal with those fellows."

If there is one man who's apt to get off lightly, it is Phil Bailey, two-time mayor now out of office. It was Bailey who thought up the leap year doings 12 years ago.

There has been some talk of a move to organize bachelor resistance. Bailey's advice to men with such outlandish ideas: "Don't do it, fellows. You just can't win."

BLAMES GOP FOR UC ILLS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Former Gov. George M. Leader, a Democrat, contended over the weekend that the Republicans are to blame for the current plight of the state's unemployment compensation fund.

Leader, in a statement issued by the Democratic state committee, took issue with a remark he said Gov. Scranton, a Republican, made last week at Williamsport.

He quoted Scranton as saying: "The Democrats borrowed money for eight years and we have to pay it back and this hurts industry."

Leader, who preceded Scranton by eight years in the executive mansion, made this rebuttal: "For the record it now becomes necessary to remind Gov. Scranton that the current problems facing the unemployment compensation fund can be traced almost wholly to bad-

SHOW OF WEEK DIDN'T MAKE CRITIC LAUGH

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Gambling Heart" on NBC Sunday night, an original comedy by the eminent film and television writer Horton Foote, was acted by a skillful company of players. It was a tedious, unfunny bore.

The plot concerned an aggressive mother with two daughters. One was married to a pompous, money-mad promoter. The other was married to a humble owner of a dry cleaning store. The action swirled around some oil stock on which the dry cleaner had timidly gambled all his savings, goaded on by his mother-in-law and the big talking promoter.

NO LAUGHTER

There was a tremendous amount of storming around and yelling — but no laughter in my living room — before the dry cleaner took his profits and ran.

If an ingratiating fellow like Wally Cox had played the dry cleaner, he might have achieved some warmth for the character. As it was, they were all brash, harsh and thoroughly unattractive. It was impossible to care what happened to any of them.

"That Was the Week That" short-sighted management of the UC fund back in 1949 and 1951 by a Republican administration.

Guard's Recruit Drive Tops Goal

HARRISBURG (AP) — Maj. Gen. Henry K. Fluck, commanding officer of the 28th Pennsylvania National Guard Division, reported Sunday that the division now numbers some 11,200 men, about 200 over its authorized complement.

Fluck said that an eight-month recruiting drive which ended recently, brought 2,350 new men into the unit. The excess personnel will be reassigned to non-division units, he said.

Was" on Friday night kicked off with a savage satire on fair employment practices, but the rest of the show proved rather slow going.

PAAR FEUD

The spiciest bit of the evening on NBC was a continuation of the feud between the program and Jack Paar whose hour show follows it. Paar is unhappy about the size of the audience he inherits from the revue.

Toward the end of "TW3" a voice announced in crisp tones that "through circumstances beyond our control, the Jack Paar show follows immediately."

Paar came on with his pre-taped show, opening his monologue with more complaints about "TW3" and calling it, among other names, "Henry Morgan's original amateur hour." The rest of his monologue was in embarrassingly poor taste.

TAX CUT BILL GOING TO LBJ DURING WEEK

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress plans to send to President Johnson the $11.5-billion tax cut bill this week before the opening round of the Senate's civil rights battle gets under way.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana intercepted the House-passed 11-point rights measure when it arrived at the Senate last Monday to prevent it from being sent to the Judiciary Committee — long a graveyard for civil rights proposals.

As soon as Mansfield moves to bring the bill up for consideration, probably late this week, Southern opponents are expected to start their filibuster.

EXPECTS QUICK ACTION

Before that, Senate Democratic leaders hope to bring up a cotton-wheat bill, which some Republicans blocked from debate Friday.

Quick approval is expected in both houses of the compromise tax bill, agreed on Wednesday by Senate-House conferees.

The timetable calls for House action on the compromise Tuesday, with the Senate poised to consider it the following day. The reductions, largest in history, will be reflected in more take-home pay starting in mid-March for taxpayers subject to withholding from wages and salaries.

You can stretch that chill come by adding cooked elbow macaroni to it.

Letter To The Editor

The Gettysburg Times

Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Our three sons have a combined total of 22 years in Scouting, and they are just high school students. To us this means that for at least 1,200 hours they were under the supervision of one or more adult leaders in Cubs, Scouts and explorers. This does not include the time devoted to special events, Blue and Gold dinners, field and farm trips; camping, canoeing, hiking, Haines safari, district camporee, weekend retreats, Tuckahoe, Philmont, jamboree.

The boys have earned a combined total of 68 merit badges. This means that, in addition to the time given by the Scoutmaster in his role, approximately 15 merit badge counselors have arranged appointments on their already overcrowded business or professional schedules, to review the required work and to give further help and hints in a particular field of endeavor or to the merit badge aspirant.

Suppose that 15 minutes was spent by each counselor on each badge interview — that is a minimum total of 1,020 minutes which could just as well have been devoted to golfing or some other form of recreation. Some required badges, like swimming and lifesaving, are not approved in a matter of minutes, but necessitate a number of hours.

How can we say "thank you" to all the Scouters through national, area, district and local affiliations; to den mothers, Cubmasters, Scoutmasters and assistant; to merit badge counselors and institutional representatives; to the solicitors in the financial campaign, to ev-

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Lammont du Pont Jr., 54, a great-great grandson of the founder of the industrial giant the du Pont Co., died Saturday after a long illness. Du Pont Jr. was vice president of the Wilmington Trust Co., and was active in Delaware civic affairs.

CROSSVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Joseph Marshall Krechniak, 55, nationally known short story writer, died Sunday at his home in Ozone, Tenn. Krechniak un-everyone in the long line of volunteers who have a hand or a heart in Scouting and who have helped our sons along the Eagle trail; who have made it possible for them to receive this special award to be proud of all of their lives? We say "thank you" now for them and for ourselves; as they grow in wisdom and age, they will surely be correspondingly grateful and will, we hope, give back to Scouting some of the many wonderful things they have received from it.

Scouters, we can only ask that the Giver of all good gifts will continue to guide your efforts and conclude with a fervent "God bless you, everyone."

PICKETS GREET GOV. SCRANTON

OIL CITY, Pa. (AP) — About 140 pickets protesting Gov. Scranton's proposal to overhaul Pennsylvania's unemployment compensation program confronted Scranton Saturday night.

The pickets, called out by the Venango County Labor Council, appeared outside an auditorium where Scranton addressed some 500 Republicans.

The governor, who had a recent appearance in Williamsport picketed, shook hands and spoke briefly to the pickets Saturday night.

Inside the auditorium he said: "People are now receiving unemployment compensation who shouldn't be receiving it. There are others who should be receiving it who do not." Once again, he expressed his hopes to lead an unpledged state delegation to the Republican national convention in San Francisco . . . to tell them that we have a unified party in Pennsylvania."

Get something off your chest. Your knees, for instance!

Imagine, unwinding and relaxing in a compact. Now you can! And that goes for backseat passengers as well as travelers up front. Because Dart is a compact in the large economy size. Lots of room for hips, heads, feet and knees. Family-size room all-round. And what goes for Dart in the comfort compartment goes ditto in the performance department. Standard engine is the famous Slant 6 that'll outlast the extra-cost engines in most other compacts. For even more action, there's an optional new Dart V8 that takes no sass from any size car.

But don't let the comfort and sizzle fool you. Dart is a compact. Witness its low price, easy upkeep, great gas mileage, and snappy parkability, and you'll know what we mean. If you're tired of cramped, underpowered compacts, talk to the man who can do something about it—your Dependable Dodge Dealer.

WHEN YOU NEED MONEY TO PAY YOUR BILLS Remember...

With THRIFT in Town You Have a Friend Around

One of the biggest problems in the family budget is all the bills that have piled up. And they all seem to fall due at the same time. The easiest way to pay them is with a bill consolidation loan from your nearby Thrift office. Borrow what you need and pay it back in monthly payments "tailored" to your budget.

At Thrift, a bill consolidation loan or any loan is a private matter. Our interest rates comply with the State of Pennsylvania's Small Loan Act (loans up to $600), and the Pennsylvania Consumer Discount Company Act (loans of $601 to $3500).

NEW MEDICAL CARE PLAN TO GO INTO USE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania will inaugurate a new purchase-of-care program next Sunday to assist those citizens under 65 who can not afford to pay their medical bills.

The new program, hailed by Welfare Secretary Arlin M. Adams as a major welfare innovation in the nation, replaces the straight subsidy system of state aid to nonsectarian hospitals.

The state's old $10-a-day subsidy program will end Saturday in all hospitals but those few which specialize in care of the chronically ill, Adams said.

$10 PER DAY

Under the new system, hospitals providing care for the indigent under 65 will receive 60 per cent of the cost for the first 10 days of hospitalization; 50 per cent for the second 10 days and 40 per cent for the final 10 days.

Minimum payments will be 10 a day. The maximum base figure in computing cost will be $25 per day for ward care.

Adams said the program, advanced by the Scranton administration through the 1963 legislature, will place Pennsylvania among the leaders in caring for its younger medically indigent.

COSTS $17.5 MILLION

Nursing homes and units in hospitals will be reimbursed at the public assistance rate up to 60 days, ranging from $4.60 to $5.92 a day, depending on the type of care required.

The new program will cost an estimated $17.5 million during the coming fiscal year, an increase of $3.5 million over current expenses for aid to the needy.

Each county will administer the new program through its Board of Assistance. Payments will not be made to individuals, but to hospitals and nursing homes supplying the services.

111 HEPATITIS CASES IN N. J.

ATLANTA (AP) — A total of 111 cases of infectious hepatitis transmitted through raw clams has been reported in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, the Communicable Disease Center said today.

The center said in its weekly morbidity and mortality report that the outbreak began in October and appears to have ended in late January. The cases were reported among persons who had consumed raw clams in the preceding 10 to 60 days.

Adults accounted for 104 of the 111 cases. Fifty-six of the cases were reported from Pennsylvania and 53 from New Jersey. Two additional cases in New York City were discovered who had consumed raw clams approximately 30 days previous in the Pleasantville, N.J., area.

The center said the cases reached a primary peak in mid-November and a secondary peak in early January.

Investigation revealed that the clams had been purchased in a number of restaurants and seafood markets located predominantly in southern New Jersey and in the Philadelphia metropolitan area.

If you want an upside-down cake to taste its very best, serve it warm. If the cake must be made ahead, reheat it.

New Opponent To Scranton UC Plan

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton administration's unemployment compensation program picked up another opponent Sunday among the forces of organized labor.

The Pennsylvania State Council of Meat-Cutters and Butcher Workmen, AFL-CIO, holding its semiannual meeting, voted to join the campaign against the Scranton plan.

The vote was unanimous among the 50 delegates in attendance.

Council President Joseph H. Sabel, Pittsburgh, said the union would send representatives to talk with their state legislators, personally urging the assemblymen to vote against the plan.

LEADERS FAIL IN TRY TO END SHIP BOYCOTT

By NEIL GILBRIDE

Associated Press Labor Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

A union boycott blocking multi-million-dollar shipments of U.S. wheat to Russia continued Monday after the collapse of negotiations between labor leaders and Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

Not one bushel of wheat will be loaded in U.S. ports until federal officials guarantee at least half of all grain shipments to Soviet bloc countries will go in American vessels, said President Thomas W. Gleason of the International Longshoremen's Union.

EIGHT SHIPS IDLE

Eight ships are tied up by the boycott in Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports.

Wirtz left for Washington after four futile days of talks, saying the union's demand raised urgent problems affecting U.S. foreign policy, balance of payments and trade policy that could only be solved in highest level conferences in Washington.

Wirtz failed in a last-minute plea to union officials to lift the boycott until such conferences could be arranged.

President Johnson's personal appeals to labor leaders also failed to budge the adamant stand of the unions.

The longshoremen and other maritime unions had the full backing of the AFL-CIO in resisting the Johnson administration's request to load the wheat for Russia.

BACKS BOYCOTT

"They are just fighting for bread and butter for their people," said AFL-CIO President George Meany in backing the boycott.

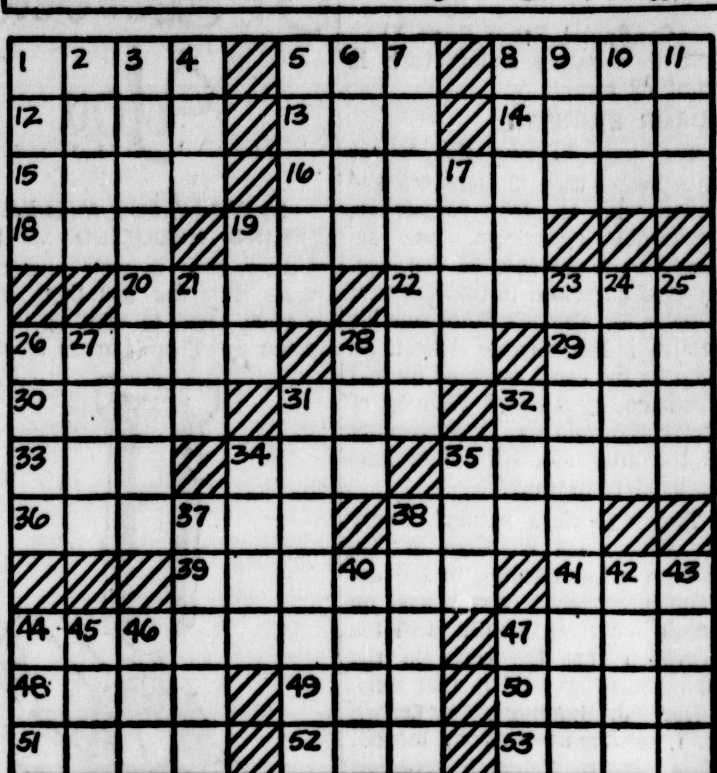

The unions argue that the wheat going to the Soviet Union is partially subsidized by taxpayers' funds and that the government should provide more jobs for American workers by guaranteeing at least 50 per cent shipment in U.S. vessels.

A spokesman for Wirtz said efforts to settle the boycott will continue, but that no new meetings are presently scheduled for Miami Beach or Washington and prospects appeared dim for a quick settlement.

The union leaders are in Miami Beach for the annual meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council, which appeared to be a routine session until storm signals were raised over the wheat dispute.

The negotiations broke off several times in an on-again-off-again round of day and night

SENATE UNDER PRESSURE ON UC PROPOSALS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate Republicans, their majority ranks already down to a bare constitutional margin of 26, are attempting to bring the stormy unemployment compensation question to a vote before they lose another member for three weeks next month.

Sen. D. Elmer Hawbaker, R-Franklin, chairman of the Senate Labor and Industry Committee now studying the legislation, said over the weekend:

"I have all intentions of getting the program through the Senate by the time Sen. Ehrgood leaves for Europe."

LEAVING MARCH 17

He was referring to Sen. Thomas R. Ehrgood, R-Lebanon, a sponsor of the Scranton U.C. legislation who is scheduled to depart for Europe March 17.

Hawbaker was optimistic over prospects to meet his deadline. "I think I can do it because resistance in the Senate . . . is nowhere near what it was 10 days ago."

In an opening step, Hawbaker has called representatives of the administration and the opposing forces of organized labor to testify today before his committee.

TO HEAR BOTH SIDES

The administration's pro reform argument will be presented by Jack Brown, director of the Bureau of Employment Security which administers the program.

Harry Boyer, president of the state AFL-CIO, will counter with labor's opposition pitch.

Many influential Republican legislators were speculating early in the game that no action would come on the issue, with its incumbent potential political ramifications until at least after the April 28 primary election.

CONVENED MONDAY

However, Scranton moved to squash this speculation by demanding action without any unnecessary delays, although he set no timetable.

The General Assembly reconvened Monday in regular and special session.

The regular session, limited by law to fiscal matters, will continue its work on the Scranton administration's proposed $1.168 billion spending program for 1964-65.

Senate Majority Leader James S. Berger said he expects little action this week on the other special session subjects—Project 70, eminent domain, blind veterans pensions and nursing home care for elderly mental patients.

As a delightful stuffing for duck, you can use rice cooked in water and orange juice (half and half), using just enough liquid to evaporate during the cooking. Butter or margarine, grated orange rind and finely diced celery and onion make other excellent additions to the rice for the stuffing.

that he had personally borrowed and loaned to the party $1,000 to replenish its treasury and pay current bills. He said he was particularly happy to leave his successor with a substantial treasury balance. "I expect the finance committee this spring to make a $1,000 disbursement to the Republican National Committee for the Presidential campaign and a contribution of approximately $2,500 to the Republican Finance Committee of Pennsylvania toward the U. S. senatorial campaign," he said.

LEAVES MAY 1

The retiring chairman said that in 1958 when he assumed the chairmanship "the Republicans had a majority of approximately 1,675 in the county and that during the Leader and Lawrence administrations, with no patronage, registration was reduced to 740. Now our registration is something in excess of 1,800 over the Democratic registration."

Pitzer said his resignation is effective May 1 "so that the party can get started on selecting a successor. He said that he believes the vice chairman should assume the duties of the office from May 1 until June 11, since he did not, directly or indirectly, want to have any part in the selection of his successor. He said he hoped the various segments of the party would unite behind one candidate and elect him unanimously and thus avoid an intraparty contest.

SERVED IN HOUSE

In 1952 Pitzer defeated Jay Bringham for the General Assembly. In 1955 he was appointed director of highway safety in the Fine administration and served until the Leader administration.

In 1960 he was delegate from the 16th Congressional District to the Republican National Convention at Chicago.

Pitzer's announcement came as a surprise to GOP party leaders throughout the county. Several indicated they had expected he would seek re-election. Pitzer said he will ask two public accountants, George W. Boehner and Edwin L. Minter, to audit the accounts of the party and its finance committee prior to turning over the funds and records to his successor. He stated that under the by-laws of the county committee, he will ask Mrs. Muriel Brendle, vice chairman, to serve as chairman from May 1 until the June 11 election.

Pitzer said that next month the usual preprimary candidates' meeting will be held at the Cashtown Fire Hall at which cial education classes in many parts of the county by county board members.

The discussion on the school reorganization plan was opened by the reading by the board secretary, Hugh C. McIlhenny, of letters from most school districts in the county favoring the six-district plan. East Berlin borough was reported as the only board favoring a single district for the county.

APPEAL LOOMS

There was discussion of means of evaluating educational programs in the various districts of the county and possible future pressures by the state on districts that are far below the state goal of 4,000 pupils.

County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson told the board he feels the county board has complied with a provision of the state law which requires them to consult school directors throughout the county. The board was officially advised of the present status of the move by Mt. Joy Twp. School District toward creation of an independent school district.

The directors also were told of Conewago Twp. board action going along with patrons' wishes there for a merger with Hanover and of the filing of an appeal from the already-approved York County plan. Supt. Coulson said the Adams County board will have the responsibility of assigning Conewago Twp. and McSherrytown borough in the Adams County plan. The prospect of a Conewago Twp. appeal from any such Adams County assignment was noted.

STUDY CONEWAGO TWP.

Supt. Coulson said there is currently no test of the constitutionality of the school reorganization law in the courts of the state.

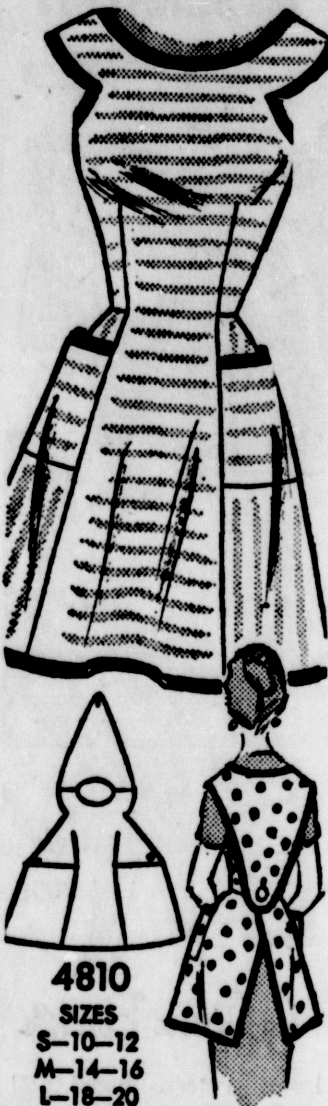

Members of the board were invited to attend a Franklin County school directors' convention March 10 on the question of area technical schools and authorized attendance by a county director at the state School Study Council at State College March 24 and 25.

Regular and payroll accounts for special education were approved.

Copies of a Harrisburg newspaper editorial criticizing county boards for going along with old 1953 plans for reorganization were distributed to the board members by the county superintendent. Assistant County Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip gave the board results of a study he has made on road distances and pupil distribution in Conewago Twp. as background for assigning that township with either New Oxford or Littlestown.

Istanbul was called Constantinople until 1923 when it was incorporated in the new Republic of Turkey.

Increase Wages At Nearby Camp, Depot

The Army - Air Force Wage Board has announced new wage schedules for Letterkenny Army Depot's 3,200 wage board employees and Ft. Ritchie's 155 wage board employees. The new schedules will be effective March 15.

The nonsupervisory schedule provides an average increase of six cents per hour; the leader schedule, an average increase of six cents per hour; and the supervisory schedule, an average increase of eight cents per hour.

The new rates resulted from a wage survey made recently in the locality to determine prevailing rates paid by private industry.

The new schedule will add approximately $400,000 to Letterkenny's yearly payroll and nearly $20,000 to Ft. Ritchie's yearly payroll.

and then made a left turn in front of him.

JUROR EXCUSED

The jury hearing the Minter case began with 12 members and ended with 11. John Klinefelter, Biglerville electrician, was selected as a member of the jury. He was surprised to find the first witness for Minter's Store was his brother-in-law, George Rebert. As soon as the court recessed he told Prothonotary George Weaver of the relationship and, by agreement of the attorneys, Klinefelter was excused from duty.

Two men were paroled. Larry R. Miller, 122 W. High St., in jail on a contributing to the delinquency charge, was placed on parole for three months with the provision that the costs in the case should be paid in that time.

Harry J. Mummet, New Oxford R. 1, who had served six months of a six- to 12-month sentence on burglary and larceny, was placed on parole for one year, with the costs to be paid within that time.

DRAW COMP JURY

A jury was drawn in the assumption action brought by Leroy Comp, Shippensburg R. 1, against Richard Storm, Gettysburg R. 6. Comp was seeking $442.86 damages for materials and labor for home construction and a well-drilling operation. Immediately after the jury was drawn a voluntary nonsuit with right to proceed again was entered and the jury dismissed.

The jury that had been drawn for the Comp case included Mrs. Helen Brenner, 851 Highland Ave.; Dale C. Hoffman, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. Ruth Miller Biglerville R. 1; George Musselman, Fairfield R. 2; Donald G. Roemer, York Springs; Wilbur Sites, Fairfield R. 1; Harry A. Spangler, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. Elizabeth Weikert, Gettysburg R. 2; William Wilson, Biglerville R. 1; Ralph J. Smith, New Oxford R. 1; Charles W. Hykes, Biglerville R. 2; Carmon D. Leathery Jr., East Berlin R. 2.

The trespass action brought by Paul W. Altland, Hanover R. 2, against Roy E. Herring, New Oxford R. 2, scheduled to go to trial this morning in county court, has been settled, attorneys told the court when it opened this morning. The suit stems from an auto accident April 21, 1963, a half mile from Edge Grove. Herring's car is alleged to have forced the auto of Altland off the road where it hit a guard rail. Damages totaling $365.04 were sought.

With the "folding" of the case, the jurors were paid by the county treasurer and all were excused until March 31 when a previously chosen jury will report for duty in the case of John E. Maitland trading as Maitland Brothers against The Autoline Oil Co.

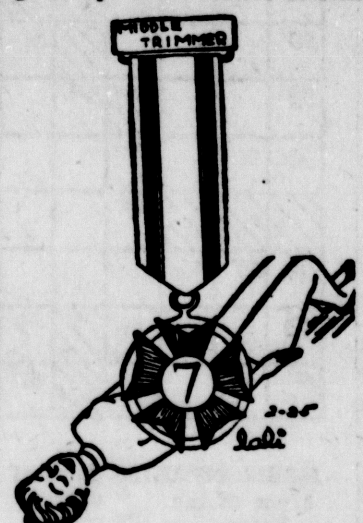

LIONS DANCE

of the Fairfield Lions was introduced as a guest.

The Lions announced a $25 gift from the charity fund to the March of Dimes. President Sterling Musselman presided at the meeting with about 50 members and guests. Richard Walker introduced the program by these Cannonaders: Marion and Beverly Myers, Paul and Maggie Dellinger, Albert and Purden Kroust, Paul and Teresa Irvin and Fred and Doris Leas.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
SPRING REDUCING SERIES.
How trim is your abdomen? Unless it is flat and firm, make up your mind to slim down and tighten up. There's more at stake in taut lines than good looks for your figure and fashions.

The abdominal muscles act as a retaining wall for vital organs. And the wall is as strong as the muscles. When they are allowed to grow weak, the wall weakens and cannot properly gird the organs.

In the abdominal region, lax muscles are the result of excess weight, poor posture and insufficient exercise. Correction consists of three steps:

1. Pull in the abdomen when you sit and stand. Keep at it until the action becomes automatic. The effort tightens the muscles and teaches them good posture habits. It also has a direct bearing on reduction.

2. Perform this trimming exercise daily: Lie back down with knees drawn up and soles of feet on floor. Press spine to floor and contract abdominal muscles: hold position for five counts. Then very slowly slide heels down floor until calves touch it. Relax and repeat 10 times.

3. If you are generally overweight, combine the other measures with a sensible diet.

Reducing Extra: Wear a firm girdle with a controlling front panel. It will assist your posture aims and, of course, it immediately improves appearances.

To solve the riddle of extra inches around your middle, send today for my leaflet, MIDRIF SLIMMERS. It contains quick, easy reducing exercises for slimming diaphragm, waist and abdomen. Write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and five cents in coin to cover handling.

HOMEMAKER

winners will be raised to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively. Final judging is done by Science Research Associates, Chicago, which also constructs and grades the written examination.

The Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow was begun in the 1954-55 school year to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career.

NEW YORK EGGS

NEW YORK (AP)—(USDA)—Wholesale egg offerings increased. Demand fair.

New York spot quotations:
Whites: Fancy heavy weight (47 lbs. min.) 37-39 1/4; fancy medium (41 lbs. average) 34-36; fancy heavy weight (47 lbs. min.) 36-38; No 1 medium (40 lbs. average) 33 1/4-34 1/4; smalls (38 lbs. average) 29-30; peewees (31 lbs. average) 25 1/4-26 1/4.
Browns: Extra fancy heavy weight (47 lbs. min.) 38-40; fancy medium (41 lbs. average) 34-36; fancy heavy weight (47 lbs. min.) 36-37 1/4; smalls (38 lbs. average) 29-30; peewees (31 lbs. average) 25 1/4-26 1/4.

Make a sugar syrup flavored with some strips of orange rind. Pour the syrup over orange segments and serve as a dessert. If you like to add a little spirit to fruit desserts, you may stir a little white rum, cherry brandy or cognac into the syrup.

FALSE TEETH
With Little Worry

Don't talk, laugh or sneeze without fear of insecure false teeth dropping, slipping or wobbling. FASTESTEETH holds plates firm and more comfortably. This pleasant powder has no gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Doesn't cause bad breath. It's alkaline (non-acid). Checks "white odor" (denture breath). Get FASTESTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

This is Carlton, the unusual new cigarette from The American Tobacco Company. Everything about Carlton is selected and crafted to produce this one result: [Low "tar" and nicotine, with real smoking pleasure.] It is so low in "tar" and nicotine we print test results on all packs and cartons. ■ Carlton has a distinctive blend, high porosity paper, special air vents, and a new "flavor filter" with activated charcoal which actually enriches the taste. ■ We believe you'll want to try Carlton. We also believe you will find it a new and pleasurable smoking experience. Give Carlton the time it takes you to smoke a carton. ■ See for yourself.
